

An announcement from the Archdiocese of New York

We are building a network of healthcare providers to offer guidance, support, and medical care to women and couples in the New York City area who have been given an adverse perinatal diagnosis.

We are looking for

- ▶ OB-Gyns and perinatologists
- ▶ Neonatologists
- ▶ Family physicians and pediatricians
- ▶ Social workers, psychologists, chaplains, and nurses
- ▶ Parents who have experienced an adverse diagnosis

Will you join us?

To serve as a member of this network or to request more information,
