

Beloved daughter...yes - daughter...you are beloved...from all eternity...I have loved you...

And love is what is most real...what is most you...love is the power of your hope...the power of your faith..."love is your name"...

Beloved daughter...give me your pain...and worries...your unanswered questions...your doubts...but most of all give your love...

Love is what I want...yes your love...your whole self...your whole being...this is the gift that I want from you...more than anything else.

Beloved daughter... believe...believe...believe...and be not afraid...I am within you...outside of you...beside you...I am that more...that more that you seek...I am that destiny you desire...I am that origin you wonder about...there is no other.

Beloved daughter...be not afraid...for love drives out all fear...listen to my heart...listen to my voice...see the world as I see the world...in the intimacy of our time...of our lives together...for I share my eternal life with you...and you share your life with me...we are one...now...you in Me...and I in you.

Beloved daughter...say my name often...Abba...call me Daddy... yes...like a small child...call me Abba...for it honors me...when you call me...and I will honor you...I will confess you before others... before angels, before powers, and dominions...before all the heavenly hosts...I myself will honor you.

Beloved daughter...I say your name often...do you listen when I call? I say your name often because I trust in you...I hope in you...I give you missions daily...even when you have sinned and broken our love... I still hope in you... do you hear me calling?

Beloved daughter...I love you and have loved you...and will always love you...I call you to be holy as I am holy...I call you to be united with me...for us to be one...in the Only Begotten SON...the Lord...Jesus... to be one in the Lord the Holy Spirit...

This is the highest proof of my love...I have sent the SON to be one exactly like you...a human being...so that one of you is God! Can I love you more, daughter? *If I can, please tell me how...*for I listen to you...I listen to your prayers...they do not go unanswered.

Beloved daughter...please do not despair...believe...and hope... even if you yourself have sinned...even if you see evil...even if you see suffering... even if you see the powerful abusing the weak... even if you see the poor...starving...and calamities and earthquakes...and planes flying into buildings...and bombs...and children being abused... believe and hope...I am more than the suffering of this world...do not judge me... do not abandon me...if you are in pain...seek to see My pain...seek to see how I see the world...

Beloved daughter...if you listen...I can give you My pain...and you can share in My joy...and my affliction will be your affliction...but I will not leave you orphaned...you will be empowered...YES... I myself will be with you...at your side...guiding you...touching your lips...inspiring your mind...giving you holy desires... I myself ...yes...believe and hope.

Beloved daughter...I only require that you take up your Cross, that you deny yourself...your pride...your little ideas...your vision of the world...and even of what you think is holy...deny...purge yourself...do penance... my daughter...and follow the Lord... yes...love...me more than whatever possession you may have...love me more...than what you love anyone else in this beautiful world I have created for you...love me more...more and more...each day...until you love me more than your life itself!

Then daughter...we will come to you...and make our eternal and permanent dwelling in your heart...then my beloved daughter...I will rest in you...and you will love me with the love of the SON...and I will give you that Kiss...that I gave you at the moment of conception...I will give you that Kiss again...and in the fullness of your being...through the Holy Spirit...you will gently whisper...full of joy and exultation...Abba Father... Daddy...take me home!
